

Name: _____

Date: _____

Lesson 2 – One Word Can Break in Different Ways

SEE IT

SAY IT

CLAP IT
SYLLABLESBREAK IT
COMPOUND
PIECESFIND WHAT WE KNOW

READ IT

WRITE IT

Listen to your teacher. Clap the syllables. Write the syllables and the compound-word pieces.

1. TOOTHBRUSH 	CLAP IT – SYLLABLES How many?	BREAK IT – COMPOUND PIECES How many?
	_____ _____	_____ + _____
2. SUNFLOWER 	CLAP IT – SYLLABLES How many?	BREAK IT – COMPOUND PIECES How many?
	_____ _____ _____	_____ + _____
3. DRAGONFLY 	CLAP IT – SYLLABLES How many?	BREAK IT – COMPOUND PIECES How many?
	_____ _____ _____	_____ + _____
4. BUTTERFLY 	CLAP IT – SYLLABLES How many?	BREAK IT – COMPOUND PIECES How many?
	_____ _____ _____	_____ + _____

TODAY'S DISCOVERY – CIRCLE THE BEST ANSWER

For SUNFLOWER, how many syllables did we clap? 2 3

For SUNFLOWER, how many words are inside the compound word? 1 2 3

Did we break the word apart in the same place both times? YES NO

What did we discover today?

A word has only one way to break.

A word can be taken apart in different ways.

Syllables and words inside are always the same.